Earthling Run

550 km from Berlin to Erdlingshof

THE ERDLINGSHOF

- The Erdlingshof is a beautiful animal sanctuary in the Bavarian Forest, where animals are simply allowed to live without having to provide any benefit.

- Currently, more than 100 animals live on the Erdlingshof: rabbits, cats, chickens, dogs, turkeys, geese, sheep, goats, deer, pigs, horses and cattle.

- Almost all of them originally lived in very sad and cruel living conditions, until they were rescued by Erdlingshof.

- The Erdlingshof tells their life stories and wants to achieve a rethinking towards more compassion, appreciation and respect.

THE IDEA OF A SPECIAL DONATION RUN

- Nico and Ben run from Berlin to the Erdlingshof in the Bavarian Forest.
- That is a total of 550 kilometers in 7 days.

- All donations go 100% to the Erdlingshof, minus 2,5% transaction costs for Betterplace.*

- The run is accompanied by media attention and sets a sign for a spirit of optimism, ambitious goals and living together in solidarity.

*We do not see this 2.5% as a loss, because Betterplace takes over the complete creation and sending of the donation confirmations. This takes a lot of pressure off the Erdlingshof, which in turn benefits the animals.

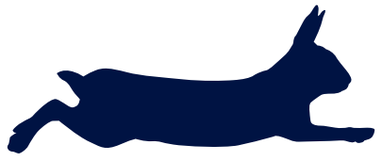
The Goal

- The Erdlingshof would like to grow in order to be able to continue to take in animals and provide them with a safe home.

- Our goal is to support the enlargement of the new outdoor area for the pigs with 20.000 Euro.

- The start of the construction project is planned for this year.

- All donations go 100% directly to the Erdlingshof, less 2.5% for Betterplace.



WHO WE ARE

- We are a small team of volunteers who have set ourselves a great goal.

- We are united by the joy of running, the commitment to the animals and the enjoyment of a delicious, plant-based diet.
